

THE STORY OF THE DEN

Welcome to The Den at St Martins Lane.
A classically British, oak-panelled snug,
it's the perfect place to enjoy afternoon tea,
curl up with a book, play a game of backgammon or share a bottle of wine with friends.

In the mood for something stronger? Our refreshing
G&T menu is inspired by the art on our walls.
Eccentric, off-kilter and filled with history and intrigue... just like the city that surrounds us.

GIN & TONICS

NELSON'S DUTY 13

Sipsmith, Schweppes tonic water, fresh orange

The Battle of Trafalgar was a great British naval victory over Napoleon. Lord Nelson won the battle but was fatally wounded, his final words being 'Thank God I have done my duty'. Nelson's Column in Trafalgar Square, just down the road from St Martins Lane, celebrates this great victory.

PUDDING AND PYE 13

Bombay Sapphire, Schweppes tonic water, fresh strawberry, lime, mint

The Great Fire of London in 1666 was said to have originated in Pudding Lane and to have been finally extinguished at Pye Corner. The monument to the Great Fire stands on Pudding Lane (now just called Monument).

OVER AND UNDER 13

Sipsmith Sloe gin, Schweppes tonic water, fresh lime, raspberry

The classic British gentleman's sport. Over and under refers to the shotgun barrels (you can choose between a side-by-side shotgun or an over and under).

WG GRACE 13

Hendrick's, Schweppes tonic water, cucumber ribbon

The greatest cricketer of them all and father of the modern game. A painting of him at a cricket match hangs in The Den.

DON GIOVANNI 13

Tanqueray, Schweppes tonic water, fresh grapefruit

One of Mozart's most famous operas, based on the legend of Don Juan. A nod to our neighbours, the Royal Opera House and the English National Opera.

FAERIE QUEENE 13

Hayman's Old Tom, Schweppes tonic water, fresh lemon, lime

An epic poem by Edmund Spenser praising Queen Elizabeth I. Can you spot a picture of her unfortunate mother on the wall of The Den?

PEPPERED STRAWBERRY TWIST 13

Bombay Sapphire, Schweppes tonic water, pink pepper, fresh basil, strawberries soaked in balsamic vinegar

ART GUIDE

1. THE GREAT FIRE

Beginning in a humble bakery on Pudding Lane in 1656, the Great Fire of London sent the city up in flames and destroyed 13,200 homes.

2. OPERA SINGER

A nod to our neighbours - English National Opera and The Royal Opera House. The latter gives an average of 150 performances per season.

3. CRICKETER

W.G. Grace was the founding father of Cricket, the quintessential British sport.

4. OFF WITH HER HEAD!

Anne Boleyn was Henry VIII's second wife. She was beheaded in the Tower of London on false charges of incest, witchcraft, adultery and conspiracy against the king.

5. COUNTRYSIDE

The traditional British gent loves to roam the countryside with his faithful hound by his side.

6. FREE BIRD

Brits love their pet birds, and budgies are one of the nation's favourite. Many are yellow, which happens to be our favourite colour here at St Martins Lane.

7. BALLOONING

Although hot air ballooning wasn't invented in Britain, no one can dispute that the Brits were pioneers in aviation.

8. ANCHORS AWEIGH

This painting celebrates adventure and exploration. From Captain Cook, Francis Drake and Sir Walter Raleigh, to all the noble Brits to have braved the seven seas.
